HISTORY
Blinn College was founded in 1883, and is the first county-owned public junior college in Texas.

ENROLLMENT
With a current enrollment of more than 19,000 students, Blinn College boasts the highest transfer rate in the state and its tuition and fees average about one-third the cost of the same classes at most Texas four-year public universities.

LOCATION
In addition to its campuses in Brenham, Bryan, Schulenburg and Sealy, Blinn teaches online courses, dual credit for high school and prepares students for quick employment through its workforce education, technical training and vocational education programs.

BLINN COLLEGE SERVICE AREA
Blinn provides dual credit courses for approximately 50 high schools within its service area, enrolling more than 1,700 students who total more than 100,000 contact hours each semester.

ECONOMIC IMPACT
• Blinn generates $345.3 million in the local economy each year*
  This is a 21.7% increase since 2010.
  ✓ $247.4 million in Bryan-College Station
  ✓ $83 million in Brenham
  ✓ $11.1 million in Schulenburg
  ✓ $3.9 million in Sealy

• Blinn’s total impact includes:
  ✓ $239.5 million in added income by former students employed in the regional workforce
  ✓ $61.3 million in College operations spending and $44.5 million in student spending

* (Source Examination Management Services, Inc. (EMSI), Fiscal year 2012-2013)

• Since August 2014, Blinn has obtained more than $1.4 million in Texas Workforce Commission grants to provide safety and skills training for companies such as Axis Pipe & Tube, Blue Bell Creameries, Stanpac USA, and Igloo Products Corp.

www.blinn.edu