

Credit by Examination Program (CLEP & AP) Application for Credit-Blinn College

Students must take the College Level Examination Programs test (subject matter tests only) or the Advanced Placement examination and have the exam scores sent to Blinn College. The application for credit by examination may be made at any time while the student attends Blinn College as long as he or she has not attempted the course for which credit is being sought; there is no charge for this service. To receive credit for English 1301, English 2322 and English 2328 using the CLEP test, the student must qualify on both the objective and essay parts of the exam. Return this form to the Office of Admissions and Records; 902 College Ave.; Brenham, Texas 77833 or fax to 979.830.4110.
