

Blinn College Alumni and Friends Association Hall of Honor Nomination Form

The Blinn College District has a rich history of alumni and friends who have given back in many ways. Without these individuals, Blinn would not be one of the premier community colleges in the country.

Your participation is requested in selecting outstanding alumni and friends to be honored during the Alumni and Friends Association's annual Hall of Honor Luncheon. If you wish to nominate someone, please submit this form to Dr. Kyle Merten, Director of Resource Development and Alumni Relations, by Friday, June 15, 2018. Each nomination will remain active for a period of three years, or until a nominee has been selected for the Hall of Honor.

The Selection Committee will focus its consideration upon Blinn alumni and friends who have demonstrated:

- Influence on the Blinn College District.
- Affiliation to the Blinn College District.
- Evidence of career/leadership successes.
- Active participation in community, state, or national activities.
