Warning – Assumption of Risk

There are many special benefits from the activities being involved to student / athletes by the Baseball Program at Blinn College. Within the activities it must be understood that there are dangers that lead to injury to student / athletes. Therefore the purpose of this section is to make all student/ athletes aware that dangers do exist and that participation is voluntary with the understanding that risk are involved. It is further understood that student / athletes must share in this responsibility for their own safety and the safety of others as each participates in the Harvey McIntyre Showcase at Blinn College.

The student / athletes participating in the Harvey McIntyre Showcase at Blinn College could injure the anatomy of either one of or several of the following: Musculo – skeletal system, nervous system, circulatory system, respiratory system, digestive system, urinary system, reproductive system, endocrine system, and skin. Catastrophic injuries such as death, permanent paralysis and loss of organs may occur during sport participation. There is not an absolute preventative against any injury.

Blinn College does not offer supplemental insurance to participants in the Harvey McIntyre Showcase at Blinn College. Any injury sustained by the student / athletes will be resolved by their own means.
