How to Succeed!

Communication is important.

- Know when to seek help from your instructor.
- Email your instructor prior to any absences or if you have questions or concerns about the class.

Challenges

• College courses are demanding. Students are expected to perform at a collegiate level.
• Requires strong self-discipline and self-direction.
• If you earn below a 70, you will not receive a passing grade, which may impact your high school graduation.
• Satisfactory Academic Progress may be affected.
• Classes follow the Blinn College calendar.
Typical Courses

• HIST 1301 and 1302
• ENGL 1301 and 1302
• GOVT 2305
• ECON 2301

• Courses are determined by each school district. Additional courses are often available as college credit only.

• Course crosswalk can be found on the Dual Credit webpage.

www.blinn.edu
Grades

• Students are responsible for:
  – following the course syllabus.
  – keeping track of grades.
  – keeping parents informed.
• Check myBLINN at the end of the semester for your final letter grade
• Grades and bills are not mailed out.
• Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act [Federal Law]

• FERPA gives parents certain rights with respect to their children's education records. These rights transfer to the student when he or she reaches the age of 18 or attends a school beyond the high school level. Parents cannot access even a minor student’s college grades without documentation on file.

• Reach out to your counselor or the Dual Credit Office for more information.
Eligibility/Steps to Enroll

• Apply through Go Apply Texas (goapplytexas.org)
• Complete the Dual Credit Approval Form
  – Must have at least a “B” average in completed school coursework.
• Meet TSI requirements for eligibility
• If taking courses on a Blinn campus, submit your bacterial meningitis shot record through your myBLINN account.
Electronic Dual Credit Approval Form

1. Student initiates the form.
2. Parent receives a link to create and activate an account.
3. Counselor receives the form.
4. Blinn receives the form and registers the student, if eligible.
