Information About Your Bank Letter

You or your sponsor may acquire a separate letter from his/her bank guaranteeing that sufficient funds are available to cover your first year's expenses at Blinn College.

If you send a separate bank letter, it must meet certain requirements. The letter must:

- Be current: dated within six months of the term for which you will be admitted;
- Be original: on bank letterhead, signed by a bank official, and stamped and/or sealed with the bank seal;
- Specify the amount of funds available- currently Blinn requires proof of at least $16,817;
- Specify the denomination of the funds: US dollars are preferred, but not required;
- Show personal funds: letters indicating company assets or deposits are not acceptable.

A bank letter which states the accounts of a person other than the student must be accompanied by a sponsor letter to be accepted. Financial sponsors, such as parents or relatives, must provide a letter stating their willingness to cover the educational expenses of the student.
