

The Blinn College Library supports teaching and learning, intellectual and professional growth, and the aesthetic and cultural development of Blinn College students, faculty, staff, and community populations. We provide resources, services, and expertise to enrich the lives and broaden the horizons of our users while preparing students to be informed, responsible citizens and life-long learners who function effectively in a technological, information-based society.

Need Help?

Ask A Librarian!

You can come in to one of our locations, call, e-mail, chat, or text us.

Go to www.blinn.edu/library for information on hours and locations.

Library Learning

A unique workshop experience to advance faculty knowledge of the library

Anyone who stops learning is old, whether at twenty or eighty. Anyone who keeps learning STAYS YOUNG.
— Henry Ford

library@blinn.edu
Phone (Bryan): 979-209-7273
Phone (Brenham): 979-830-4451
Text: 979-457-4051
Chat: <http://www.blinn.edu/library/chat/>

Workshops—Fall 2016

Making the Most of your Library—
What all Faculty need to know.

Friday September 23rd 12:00-1:30

This session is aimed at new (and old!) faculty who have not explored how to use the library's resources. We will present information about our Liaison Program, library instruction, library resources, course reserves, ILL, purchasing, and more. There will be a Q&A session where you can ask about using specific resources and anything else you'd like to know about the library.

Lunch will be provided at this session.

.5 Professional Development points for attendance

Enhance your Knowledge

Various

These will be 30 minute sessions dedicated to learning about a specific library resource or service. They will take place throughout the semester and information will be sent to faculty when they are offered. Want to see something specific for your department/group of colleagues? E-mail us and let us know.

Cookies and Coffee provided at these sessions.

How to sign up for a workshop:

- Sign up by filling out the form found here:

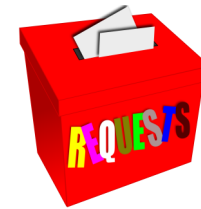

<http://blinn.libwizard.com/Workshop-RSVPBryan>

- Class is limited to the first 30 people that sign up
- Walk-ins are welcome— Food is determined by RSVP. For a guaranteed spot and refreshment please sign up in advance.
- If there is enough interest, classes may be offered on other dates, please e-mail us to request an alternate date/time.

Take a look at our student workshops*
-faculty can request any for their classes.

Many faculty offer extra credit to students who attend library workshops. We keep a sign in sheet and can email you the names of your students who attend.

“Word” Shop: How to use Microsoft Word to write your paper.

Downloading eBooks: How to use the Library's eBook databases for research

Surf the Library from Your Couch: How to access crafts, music, plays, eBooks and more from the comfort of your own home.

Fact or C.R.A.A.P.?: How to determine if a website is appropriate for research.

Research Feud: Becoming an expert researcher.

Annotated Bibliographies: What you need to know

I'm in Jeopardy: How to avoid plagiarism by properly citing sources

* Not all student workshops are offered every semester, please contact the library for a list of currently offered workshops.