If You Have Experienced Sexual Harassment, Sexual Violence, Relationship Violence, or Stalking

Immediate Steps

• Go to a safe place. Your Resident Assistant’s (RA) room, a friend’s room, or any open offices on campus.

• Call someone you trust. A friend, family member, or victim advocate are good resources. You do not have to go through this alone.

• Preserve evidence. After sexual violence, do not shower until you have considered whether to have a no-cost forensic sexual assault examination at the hospital. Save the clothes you were wearing (unwashed) in a paper or cloth bag. After sexual violence, relationship violence, and/or stalking, take photos of any damage or injury and keep communication records.

Within 24 Hours

• Seek out confidential support. You may want to turn to a confidential advocate or counselor for support and advice. They will speak with you about your options for additional support services and reporting.

• After unwanted physical contact, get medical attention. A medical provider can check for and treat physical injury, sexually transmitted infections, and pregnancy. You do not need to make a formal report or press charges to receive medical care.

At Any Time

• Consider making a formal report. You are encouraged to report what happened to both the police and the Title IX Coordinator. You can decide how much you would like to participate in any investigation process.

• Blinn can help. Campus-based resources such as the Office of the Title IX Coordinator can assist you with changes to your housing, classes, work, and more. You do not need to make a formal report or press charges to receive help from Blinn.

Blinn’s Commitment to a Safe and Supportive Community

Blinn is committed to creating and maintaining a campus environment free from all forms of sexual harassment, sexual violence, relationship violence, and stalking. All reports are taken with the utmost seriousness.

You are not alone. You do not have to make a formal report or press charges to receive medical and academic support. The resources listed in this brochure can help.

Employee Reporting

Blinn College cares deeply about supporting the reporting party and protecting community safety. Therefore, most employees who witness or receive a report of sexual harassment must report the incident to the Office of the Title IX Coordinator. Exceptions include employees who are empowered by law to maintain confidentiality, such as those in Student Health Services and Counseling and Mental Health Services.

Under the federal Clery Act, many employees also have a duty under federal law to report crimes to the Blinn College Police Department. Their report to police will include the date, time, and place of the incident, but not the identity of the reporting party.
What is Sexual Harassment?
Sexual harassment is any form of unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, persuasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the recipient’s education program or activity.

What is Consent?
An understandable exchange of affirmative words or actions, which indicate a willingness to participate in mutually agreed-upon sexual activity. Consent must be informed and freely and actively given. It is the responsibility of the initiator to obtain clear and affirmative responses at each stage of sexual involvement. Consent to one form of sexual activity (like kissing) does not imply consent to other forms of sexual activity (like sex). The lack of a negative response is not consent. An individual who is incapacitated by alcohol and/or other drugs, both voluntarily or involuntarily consumed, may not give consent. Past consent of sexual activity does not imply ongoing future consent.

What is Relationship Violence?
Relationship violence (also known as intimate partner, dating, or domestic violence) is a pattern of behavior in an intimate relationship used to establish power and control over another person through fear and intimidation. Relationship violence can be verbal, emotional, and/or physical. Examples include: slapping, pulling hair, name-calling, damaging property, and threats of abuse or physical harm.

What is Stalking?
Stalking involves any behaviors or activities occurring on more than one occasion that collectively instill fear in the victim and/or threaten her/his safety, mental health, and/or physical health. Examples include: non-consensual communications (in person, text, phone, social media, email), surveillance, or showing up at the targeted person’s classroom or workplace.

Reporting and Investigations
Reporting parties are strongly encouraged to make a report to both the police and the Office of the Title IX Coordinator for assistance and investigation. Reporting can help ensure the safety of the reporting party and the entire campus community. The reporting party has the right to report assaults without further participation in any investigation.
