Waller Equine Hospital is located in Waller, TX northwest of Houston. We have small town living with the convenience of the big city within 30 minutes. The practice employs 20 staff members including, two equine surgeons, two general practitioners, and two veterinary interns. We currently have 8 LVT’s employed through our hospital. The equine facilities include a 20 stall barn, equine isolation unit, 4 paddocks, and 2 pastures. The technician we will employ will be self-motivated, team player, detail oriented, with a willingness to learn new tasks. Responsibilities will include running the doctors schedule, preparing for scheduled appointments, keeping the doctor on time with scheduled appointments, receiving emergency’s, patient monitoring, patient care, iv catheterization, intravenous injections, fluid therapy, anesthesia on call (after training in hospital is complete), client communication, and instrument sterilization. The position offers an opportunity with diagnostic equipment such as digital radiography, video endoscopy, blood gas analysis, complete blood cell counts, biochemical profiles, ultrasonography etc. Benefits will include 401k, paid continuing education, 10 days paid vacation, 6 days sick leave, health insurance, and competitive wages. For more information please email sknapp@wallerequine.com

Type of Practice:
Equine Only

Street Address:
28234 FM 2920, Waller, TX 77484

Hours per week:
40

Type of Position:
Full-time

Salary/Wage:
hourly ranges $12.30 - $15.50 depending on experience

Level of Experience Desired:
Graduate (CVT, RVT, LVT)

We offer a place to stay if you have to travel for the interview. All interviews are working interviews. Depending on your schedule the working interview must be at least an 8 hour day, but can be up to 5 working days (of which are paid) if your schedule allows it.

Contact Name:
Shauna Knapp

--

Waller Equine Hospital
28234 FM 2920
Waller, Texas 77484
936-931-2900

www.wallerequine.com